Govt regret that for financial reasons the necessary provision could not be made in the current year's P.W.D budget on account of the proposed maternity Hospital at Robertsonpet and that the question of establishing the institution should therefore have to lie over for the present.
2. The Chief Engr is however requested to report for the information of Govt the cost of acquiring the "Gowrian buildings" and of the necessary works to be executed to adapt the
